Trainee Early Years Creative Practitioner

Take Art is excited to welcome and upskill a new Trainee Early Years Creative Practitioner who will support delivery of creative experiences for 2 - 4 year olds across West Dorset and South/West Somerset. This career development opportunity is for anyone keen to develop their creative arts practice with young children. The role offers training and mentoring sessions with two experienced creative arts practitioners as well as paid shadowing placements.

Who can apply

- Anyone is welcome to apply, but we are especially keen to hear from young people aged 18 - 25 in the early stages of their careers
- No previous experience needed but you should have a commitment to developing creativity with 2 – 4 year olds and to sharing skills with the adults who care for them.
- We are interested in any form of creative/arts practice.
- Applications from those already working in the early years sector who wish to extend their skills and experience in creative practice are welcome.
